Round 1

Develop an idea for a spinoff TV series/film in regards to a popular character/entity from an already existing TV show/film. Think of an alternate plot, adventure or separate universe that would be an interesting exploration of that character. Think of a general character arc to go with it as well. Create a pitch deck to present this idea. Your goal is to receive total funding of $20 Million in order to go through and set your idea into motion. Good luck, we're hard to impress.

Rules:

- The team will have to create and present a pitch deck for their spinoff idea.
- The pitch should reflect a whole story arc through a single season/feature length film.
- Teams will have up to 5 minutes to present; further questions could be asked by investors after the pitch.
- The investment amount will directly correspond to points awarded to the team which will count towards the point total at the end. ($10 Million = 10 Points)

Round 2:

You will be shown movie reviews sourced from the popular website "Letterboxd". These reviews are submitted by fans of the movies. You must deduce the movie that the original review is based on. This is an elimination round.

Rules:

- Up to three people can be nominated for one team to participate in the round
- 30 seconds will be allotted for each team to lock in their answer by writing it down on a provided whiteboard.
- Only one, specific answer can be provided by a team
- One point will be allotted for each correct answer to a team.
- The bottom 3 teams will be eliminated.

Round 3:

You will be assigned a scene from a film which represents its climax/ending, except the teams must think of and execute in creating an alternate ending for the film, and the characters involved. This could mean a tonal shift, sudden burst of clarity, a difference in timeline that we are now seeing unfold, anything. You must now recreate this scene with the alternate ending in place, film it, edit it, and submit it.

Rules:

- The scene recreations must not exceed a maximum of 4 minutes.
- They must be filmed on campus, featuring other delegates present at the event

Judging Criteria:

- Originality of alternate ending- /10
- Accuracy of tone- /10
- Emotional Impact- /10
